Mungaru department.

Sir,

I respectfully beg to report that on the 13th instant I offered the Gold belt which I had shown to you in Mysore to the Utsava Vigraha of Yadugiri Nachyar in Sri Narayana Swami Temple at Melkota. The Peshkar gave me every facility and assistance for performing the — Krishnaraya that day. But for his careful supervision the usual thefts of articles of food could not have been avoided.

I hear that there are two broken gold belts of the Ubhaya Nachiyar Vigrahas of Sri Salva Raya Swami in the Seringapatam Taluq Treasury. I am prepared to pay the costs of making them afresh. I request you will kindly order them to be made afresh before the next Vairamudi Utsava which is to come off on the 13th of March.
